

Audit Committee Charter

(revised November 2020).

Purpose of Audit Committee

This Audit Committee Charter has been approved by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Endeavour Silver Corp. (the “Company”) as of the date set out above.

1. Oversight of senior management and the external auditor relating to:
 - a. maintaining necessary books, records and accounts to accurately and fairly reflect the Company’s transactions for financial accounting and reporting process to shareholders and regulatory bodies;
 - b. maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, including adequate control environment and processes for assessing the risk of material misstatements in the financial statements and for detecting control weaknesses or fraud;
 - c. financial and controls audit process, review and audit finding reports and other matters that may arise.
2. The Committee shall have the authority to:
 - a. engage independent counsel and other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties;
 - b. set and pay the compensation for any advisors employed by the Committee;
 - c. communicate directly with the internal and external auditors of the Company, or any persons of the Company as needed.

The Audit Committee provides assurance to the board that processes, controls and procedures are operating effectively, thus enabling the company to assume the necessary risks to successfully operate the business and meet objectives.

Meetings

The Committee will meet at least quarterly, with additional meetings as deemed necessary by the Committee. It is the responsibility of the Chair of the Committee to schedule all meetings of the Committee and provide the Committee with a written notice and agenda for all meetings. The Chair of the Committee shall report to the Board after each Committee meeting, including recommendations on any specific decisions or actions the Board should consider.

The Committee may invite external or internal advisor(s), including any member of the management team or other person, to attend part or all of any meetings of the Committee to make presentations, participate in discussions, or provide information and assistance to the Committee as required.

The Committee may call upon and have access to resources for additional information or advice, including engaging external consultants. The Committee shall have unrestricted access to employees and records of the Company to the fullest extent permitted by law and is authorized to take advice from external parties as appropriate at the Company's expense.

Composition

The Committee shall consist of a minimum of three directors of the Company, all of whom are "independent" within the meaning of National Instrument 52-110 - Audit Committees in Canada, subject to any further applicable requirements under United States securities laws and regulations and the policies of the New York Stock Exchange. The Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board immediately following the Annual General Meeting of the Company. Each member of the Committee shall be financially literate, meaning that each member must be able to read and understand financial statements that present a breadth and level of complexity of accounting issues that are generally comparable to the breadth and complexity of the issues that can reasonably be expected to be raised by the Company's financial statements. One member of the Committee must have accounting and financial expertise, meaning that the member possesses financial or accounting credentials or has experience in finance or accounting.

Committee Responsibilities and Duties

The Committee's duty is to monitor and oversee the operations of management and the external auditor. Management is responsible for establishing and following the Company's internal controls and financial reporting processes and for compliance with applicable laws and policies. The external auditor is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and for issuing its report on the statements.

The Committee should review and evaluate this Charter on an annual basis. The specific duties of the Committee are as follows:

1. Management Oversight:

- a. Review and evaluate the Company's processes for identifying, analyzing and managing financial risks that may prevent the Company from achieving its objectives;
- b. Review and evaluate the Company's internal controls, as established by management;
- c. Review and evaluate the status and adequacy of internal information systems and security;
- d. Meet with the external auditor at least once a year in the absence of management;
- e. Request the external auditor's assessment of the Company's financial and accounting personnel;
- f. Review and evaluate the adequacy of the Company's procedures and practices relating to currency exchange rates;

2. External Auditor Oversight

- a. Recommend to the Board the selection and, where applicable, the replacement of the external auditor to be appointed or nominated annually for shareholder approval;
- b. Recommend to the Board the compensation to be paid to the external auditor;
- c. Review and evaluate the external auditor's process for identifying and responding to key audit and internal control risks;
- d. Review the scope and approach of the annual audit;
- e. Inform the external auditor of the Committee's expectations;
- f. Meet with management at least once a year in the absence of the external auditor;

3. Review the independence of the external auditor on an annual basis;

- a. Review with the external auditor both the acceptability and the quality of the Company's financial reporting standards;
- b. Resolve any disagreements between management and the external auditor regarding financial reporting;

- c. Review and pre-approve all audit and audit-related services and the fees and other compensation related thereto, and any non-audit services, provided by the Company's external auditor. The authority to pre-approve non-audit services may be delegated by the Committee to one or more independent members of the Committee, provided that such pre-approval must be presented to the Committee's first scheduled meeting following such pre-approval. Pre-approval of non-audit services is satisfied if:
 - i. the aggregate amount of all the non-audit services that were not pre-approved is reasonably expected to constitute no more than 5% of the total amount of fees paid by the Company and subsidiaries to the Company's external auditor during the fiscal year in which the services are provided;
 - ii. the Company or a subsidiary did not recognize the services as non-audit services at the time of the engagement; and
 - iii. the services are promptly brought to the attention of the Committee and approved, prior to completion of the audit, by the Committee or by one or more of its members to whom authority to grant such approvals has been delegated by the Committee; and
- d. Confirm with the external auditor that the external auditor is ultimately accountable to the Board and the Committee, as representatives of the shareholders.

4. Financial Reporting Oversight

- a. Review with management and the external auditor the Company's annual and interim financial statements, management's discussion and analysis, any annual and interim profit or loss press releases and any reports or other financial information to be submitted to any governmental and/or regulatory body, or the public, including any certification, report, opinion, or review rendered by the external auditor, for the purpose of approval or recommending their approval to the Board prior to their filing, issue or publication;
- b. Ensure that adequate procedures are in place for the review of the Company's public disclosure of financial information extracted or derived from the Company's financial statements (other than the public disclosure referred to in (a) above), as well as review any financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies, and periodically assess the adequacy of those procedures; and
- c. Discuss with the external auditor the quality and the acceptability of the International Financial Reporting Standards applied by management.

5. "Whistleblower" Procedures

- a. Establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and
- b. Establish procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
