

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE CHARTER

(revised November 2020).

Purpose of Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee

The principal purpose of the Committee shall be to provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its responsibility to the shareholders, other stakeholders and the investment community by doing the following:

1. Developing and recommending to the Board corporate governance principles applicable to the Company;
2. Identifying and recommending qualified individuals for nomination to the Board of Directors; and
3. Providing such assistance as the Chair of the Board, if independent, or alternatively the lead director of the Board, may require.

Composition

The Committee shall be comprised of two or more directors, each of whom shall be unrelated and independent as determined by the Board in accordance with the applicable requirements of the laws governing the Company, the applicable stock exchanges on which the Company's securities are listed and applicable securities regulatory authorities. The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall serve until their successors are appointed. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the membership of the Committee and to fill vacancies in it, subject to the Committee continuing to satisfy the composition requirements mentioned above. The Board shall designate one member of the Committee as its Chair. If a Chair of the Committee is not designated or present at a meeting, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair for the meeting by majority vote of the Committee membership.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least annually or more frequently as required. It is the responsibility of the Chair of the Committee to schedule all meetings of the Committee and provide the Committee with a written notice and agenda for all meetings. The Chair of the Committee shall report to the Board after each Committee meeting, including recommendations on any specific decisions or actions the Board should consider. 2 The Committee may invite external or internal advisor(s), including any member of the management team or other person, to attend part or all of any meetings of the Committee to make presentations, participate in discussions, or provide information and assistance to the Committee as required.

Committee Responsibilities and Duties

The Committee shall have the specified purpose, responsibilities and duties as are more particularly set forth below. The Committee shall also carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board from time to time related to and as required by changing business, legislative, regulatory, legal or other conditions.

The following shall be the principal corporate governance responsibilities of the Committee:

1. The Committee shall review and reassess at least annually the adequacy of the Company's corporate governance procedures and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval. The Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval. The Committee shall annually review its own performance.
2. Maintain minutes of meetings and report to the Board on significant matters arising at Committee meetings at the next scheduled meeting of the Board.
3. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate.
4. The Committee shall review and recommend changes to the Board of the Company's Code of Conduct, and shall consider any requests for waivers from the Company's Code of Conduct. The Company shall make disclosure of such waivers of the Code of Conduct to Canadian securities regulatory authorities as required by law.
5. The Committee shall review annually or more often if appropriate: (i) Committee members' qualifications and requirements, (ii) Committee structure (including authority to delegate) and (iii) Committee performance (including reporting to the Board). The Committee shall make recommendations to the Board, as appropriate based on its review.
6. The Committee shall receive comments from all directors and report annually to the Board with an assessment of the Board's performance, which will be discussed with the full Board following the end of each fiscal year.

The following shall be the principal responsibilities of the Committee for selection and nomination of director nominees:

1. In making its recommendations to the Board regarding director nominees, the Committee shall consider:
 - a. the appropriate size of the Board, with a view to facilitating effective decision-making by the Board,
 - b. the competencies and skills that the Board considers to be necessary for the Board, as a whole, to possess,
 - c. the competencies and skills that the Board considers each existing director to possess, and having regard to the personality and other qualities of each director as such may contribute to the boardroom dynamic.
 - d. the competencies and skills each new nominee will bring to the Board, and
 - e. whether or not each new nominee can devote sufficient time and resources to the nominee's duties as a director of the Company.
2. The Committee shall develop qualification criteria for Board members for recommendation to the Board in accordance with NP 58-201. In conjunction with the Chair of the Board (or, if the Chair of the Board is not an independent director, any "Lead Director" of the Board as contemplated by NP 58-201), the Committee shall recommend Board members to the various committees of the Board.
3. The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates and shall have authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms. The Committee shall also have authority to engage and compensate any other outside advisor that it determines to be necessary to permit it to carry out its duties.
4. The Committee shall, in conjunction with the Chair of the Board (or, if the Chair of the Board is not an independent director, any Lead Director of the Board), oversee the evaluation of the Board and of the Company and make recommendations to the Board as appropriate.
5. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Charter, if the Company is legally required by contract or otherwise to provide third parties with the right to nominate directors to the Board, the selection and nomination of those directors need not involve the approval of the Committee.
